

Today's Scripture Reading: Hebrews 11:1, 6

Next Week's Text: Ephesians 5:21-33

WHAT EVERY CHILD NEEDS

An _____ that Stands for Them
(Deuteronomy 6:1-2)

A CLEAR _____ THAT INSPIRES THEM
(Deuteronomy 6:3-6)

A CONSISTENT _____ THAT ENABLES THEM
(Deuteronomy 6:7-9)

The Ten Commandments

Moses shares the commandments the Lord had given His people in Deuteronomy 5:1-21. List out the commandments in the order they are given. As you list them, discuss how seriously you see each commandment being taken today.

The Greatest Commandment

Moses shares the Greatest Commandment in Deuteronomy 6:5. How does this commandment relate to each of the Ten Commandments listed in 5:1-21?

1. We are instructed to obey God's commands, but what else are we to do with them according to Deuteronomy 6:6-9?
2. What is the difference between obeying God's law and teach others to obey God's law. Can we obey His Word without teaching His Word to others?
3. What role do parents have in their children's spiritual development?
4. Look at the example of a child asking the parent a question about God in Deuteronomy 6:20-25. How is the parent instructed to respond?
5. Do you think Christian parents are prepared to respond to their children according to the example given in Deuteronomy 6:20-25?
6. What happens when a generation does not teach the next generation about God, His Word and His Work?
